February, 2007

WE MAY NOT BE BACK YET, BUT WE'RE PLANNING FOR IT!

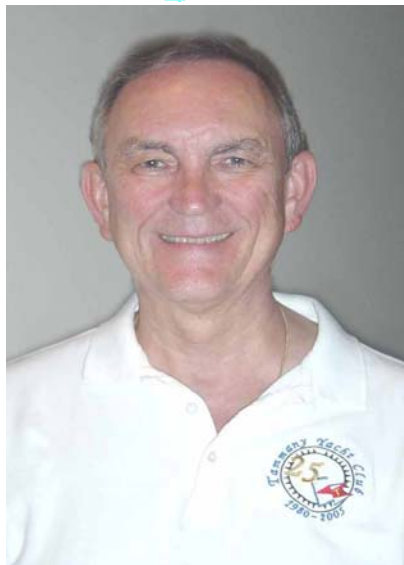

Here are some of the planned dates for TYC events! We don't know the exact date of the club reopening, but we do have these functions planned.

Please invite your neighbors and friends who may wish to join TYC to these events. More events may be added later and this is only for the first half of the year.

Saturday, 24 February: Day at the Races
Saturday, 3 March: Two Against the Lake Race
Saturday, 17 March: St. Patrick's Day Party
Friday, 23 March: TYC "Reopening Shower"
Saturday, 24 March: Official Grand Reopening
Saturday, 21 April: Reopening GYA Party
Sunday, 13 May: Mother's Day Brunch
Saturday, 9 June: Party TBD

Meanwhile, our members have been busy enjoying each other's company! Here are some pictures of our members passing a good time!

Commodore's Corner

Our re-opening of TYC is getting closer...but we still don't have a promise date. We had the January Board Meeting amid the stacks of furniture and appliances in the main dining room. Since then, Scott Collins has led work parties almost every Saturday. First we moved everything from the dining room into the front room while Kyle's crew carpeted the dining room, the office & the store room. Then we moved most of the "stuff" back to the dining room while carpets were installed in the front room. Next, we cleared the Junior's room for carpeting. Be sure to thank the following folks for contributing their efforts to bringing TYC back to life: Scott & June Collins, Steve & Dodie Jones, Sandy & Harley McPeck, Bill Yaeger, Bill Pleasants, Matt Chapman, Jackie Boehm, Tommy Thompson, Jim Ilgenfritz, Kyle Bowser, Val Monahan, Kelley Richardt, Brenda & Phil Fulkerson, Suzy & Dave Carpenter, Dr. Bobby Tassin, Jackie Boehm, Bill Jobst, Kevin Blank and Coast Guard Auxiliary folks: Jim Liveret, Bill Baldwin, Jeff Huse, Earl Benzenhafer, Gary Demarsh, Ronnie Martin and Pat Bradley. Hope I got everyone who helped. The elevator is now installed and operational, though not quite finished. When it is complete, we will get new carpet on the stairs and on our landing. Our new bottle cooler has arrived and installed. See photo.

Once again, our sailing members were active, even though the club house was closed. Bobby Tassin stepped up to act as Primary Race Officer (PRO) for the

Two Against The Lake Sailboat Race in March. Thanks Steve Jones, Bobby Tassin, Nigel Beale Carl Boehm and all who will make the Two Against The Lake Race happen.

Those of you who wish to contribute your time and labor to TYC as bartenders should contact Acadian Alcohol Responsible Vendor / Server Training, Inc. (985-867-8196) for the scheduled bartender's courses. The cost is $25 for the state permit. With the state permit in hand you must then obtain a parish dispenser's certificate for $30. Go to the St. Tammany Parish Government Complex, Planning Department, 21490 Koop Drive, Mandeville, LA (off Hwy 59 call 985-898-2528). Everybody who gets permits let Dodie know, so she can educate you on TYC procedures and schedule your shifts. The more members who become involved in TYC operations, the more economical we are and the more fun you have participating.

The Board of Directors elected to defer the next Annual General Membership Meeting until we can hold the meeting at TYC. The February Board Meeting will be at 1900 hours (7 pm), Tuesday, February 12, 2007, at TYC, 1196 Harbor Drive at Oak Harbor Marina.

See you soon at Tammany Yacht Club.

CLEAN UP AND CONSTRUCTION PROGRESS AT OUR CLUBHOUSE

Greetings All (or at least that's how our Commodore's emails were addressed as he was trying to encourage us all to lend a hand in the club cleanup)

We have had two "clean up parties" at the club so far. They have been well attended by both TYC member and Coasties from the Coast Guard Auxiliary. They have made a big dent in preparing for carpet installation, moving stuff around, cleaning, and making room for re-carpeting the rest of the Clubhouse. They moved furnishings out of and back into the office and shuffled tables & chairs from the back half of the club to the front half of the club and then back to the newly carpeted dinning room. They also hauled out a lot of trash.

All of us at TYC join our Commodore in thanking all of those who participated in the clean-up, they included (in no particular order) plus more I'm sure that somehow weren't included in this list:

Scott and June Collins
Steve & Dodie Jones
Sandy & Harley McPeck

ALL KINDS OF RACING!

A DAY AT THE RACES

Join us Saturday February 24th at the Fair Grounds. TYC will be hosting a Day at the Races. We have reserved four boxes together in the Clubhouse, that is reserved seating for 24 people. These seats will be filled on a first come basis. General admission to the Clubhouse is $5.00 per person payable at the gate and box seats are $4.00 more. We are planning to meet at the TYC parking lot at 11:00am and proceed from there.

Food and drinks are available in the Clubhouse where they are famous for their corned beef. It should be a great day of racing as they have a breeders cup purse on that day.

Call Jim Ilgenfritz at home 645-8637 or on his cell (504) 583-0261 to reserve your box seat now. We look forward to you joining us for a lot of fun!

TWO AGAINST THE LAKE RACE

The first race of the season is March 3rd. It is the famous TYC 2 Against the Lake Race. This should be one of Tammany's biggest boating events of the year! Come join the fun, we have jobs for everyone.

Bobby Tassin is the Principal Race Officer, he is coordinating the boats and people it takes to actually put on the race. If you have a boat and want an excuse to use it give Bobby a call. We will also need people to help at the club. We expect to have a skippers meeting so the club opens early with doughnuts and coffee, and a party with trophy presentation after the race. If you want to join us and don't mind lending a hand give me a call. Our planning meeting is Tuesday Feb 13th at 7 PM.
