ELECTION RESULTS FOR THE TYC BOARD OF DIRECTORS

TYC Board election was held at the General Membership meeting on Friday Oct 15 and here's the Board for 2011

Commodore	Carl Ritzmann
Vice Commodore	Kevin Blank
Rear Commodore	Tom Smith
Treasurer	Larry Whited
Secretary	Joe Sexton
Past Commodore	Martin Smith

Members at Large Listed Alphabetically

Rob Keister
Mark Poole
Sandy Stone

Congratulations to the new board. The nominating committee thanks everyone who ran for election. All members of TYC appreciate your effort to assist our Club and we hope you will find another way to serve, possibly even running again.

Since there were a number of ballots which could not be counted lets add a few words about procedure. The election is conducted as required by the TYC by-laws and a set of instructions was displayed. The procedure was developed to insure that only eligible persons voted and to make sure that the ballots were secret. Unfortunately, ballots not following the requirements cannot be counted.

Commodore's Corner

On October 15th, Tammany held its General Membership Meeting and Election of Officers. Scott Collins will report on the election of the new Officers and Board Members elsewhere in this issue of the Spyglass. This is the first time the officers have been elected in October. In previous years, the election was not held until December, which gave the incoming Board and Flag Officers little time to select committee members and set an agenda for the next year. Our incoming Commodore, Carl Ritzman has held every office on the Board except Commodore...Carl, it's your turn!

Cali is once again cooking her fantastic Red Beans & Rice on Wednesday nights...try 'em, you'll like 'em!

My last Commodore's letter will be next month.

Martin Smith,

Commodore

Yours truly will pass to the revered status of Past Commodore. Nearly all of the 2011 Officers and Board Members are presently on board. I invite the newly elected Board Members and Flag Officers to attend the board meetings remaining this year. The meetings are held on the second Monday of each month. All Club members are also invited.

The Club is stronger due to the addition of new and younger members, Juniors Program, and enthusiasm that hasn't been seen since pre-Katrina. The Club also advanced by having the help of our Club Manager, Cali Mac Neil, and our bookkeeper, Jean Costello.

The sailors' faces are a little long these days since they can only rehash past races until the spring series starts – unless they start a new series of “Frostbite” races!

October Birthday Celebrants
On Hand
October 1, 2010

No one who's birthday was in October showed up to blow out the candles. We still celebrated and ate the cake. TYC members will not let a cake go to waste.

Yes, it does say 50

October 7th was Cathy Folse 50th birthday, husband JD Deutschmann was out-of-town for this big event. Some members did not want Cathy to celebrate alone so she got her very own cake and a few drinks. Cathy we hope JD makes up for his absence on this very special day.

JD I did celebrate the “BIG 50” without you. I wish you could have been here.

Ladies you look so serious....

This is a typical Thursday evening at TYC for some of our ladies as they play a friendly game of Bridge.

2010 Woodend Boat Festival – Madisonville
By Peggy Stone

Great minds think alike - at least when it comes to a TYC gathering . Many TYC members and families found familiar faces at the Madisonville Wooden Boat Show. Marina del Ray became home base for a weekend of food, fun and boats. Tom and Debbie Smith's home/trawler hosted a few gatherings , while Jan and Harold Pecunia's land yacht provided dry ground for sitting out and enjoying the view. Dick and Jean Almos drove over to enjoy the LSU game at the Pecunia's outdoor theater with many other's that gathered around. Nancy and Carl Ritzmann, and Dottie and Norman David held slips in the marina, while Sandy and Peggy Stone, with granddaughter Gabrielle, and Ted and Joann Katsorchis were docked in the river slips. Gloria and Mark Poole and Bill and Shirley Hinkel ,with daughters and grandchildren, were anchored upriver, ferrying back and forth in dighnys. Dodie and Steve Jones launched their runabout and enjoyed running in the river. Kevin Blank and Becky Black joined in the fun. Many other TYC members met at the Festival itself. Carl Ritzmann learned to ride Nancy's bicycle; it beat the long walk across the bridge.

Ronnie Kole is an honorary member of TYC and it was delightful to see Ronnie and his sextet in concert and also his wife, Gardner, who looked wonderful. Gardner is recovering from a devastating stroke and was in great spirits.
