TYC Race

Rob Keister

It's been a windy spring so far, with exciting racing on the Lake. TYC racing started up in March, and to date we have had 4 Wednesday night races and our annual Two Against the Lake Race.

Our Wednesday night races have been well attended this spring with 14 different boats making it to a race. The racing has been very competitive, particularly with the strong winds that we have been having. Along with our normal Wednesday night racers, our TYC Juniors have been out racing our new TYC Flying Scot each Wednesday evening. The boys are getting really good, with a 1st place two weeks ago and a 2nd this week. They are currently in 3rd for the series. I want to thank our Race Committee, Bobby Tassin, Dodie Jones, and Wayne Sewing for their great management of our Wednesday night races.

2014 Two Against the Lake was another very windy event with winds gust up to 30 Kts, but our boats had a great day, with awesome soups supplied by the First Mate's after the race. HACHT SHACHT was our only non-spinnaker boat to finish. PINCH N ROLL, PINEAPPLE EXPRESS and THE BEAR were the top 3 boats in spinnaker.

In April, we will continue our Wednesday night series and we will have our Opening Day Regatta on 12 April. Please come on out and race. If you don't have a boat, but want to sail, every boat is looking for crew, just show up at TYC at 6pm any Wednesday night.

This month we celebrated Two Against the Lake with a soup tasting event. Thank you to all the ladies who contributed with making soup for our hungry sailors. There were so many great tasting soups; it was good we did not have to vote on the best. Also thanks to the ladies that contributed desserts, and rolls. Special thanks to Jeannie for the treats.

Thank you to all the ladies that joined us for our First Mates general meeting on April 3rd . Stay tuned for details of this years events. Thanks for all of your ideas.

WOW...St. Patty's party was a lot of fun. THANKS-A-BUNCH to all those who helped me put this event together.

Lacy..her input was so valuable to me in planning my first event.

Brenda..What a jewel we have in her, she did a super job preparing our traditional St. Patty's dinner.

Frank.. He did such a good job keeping up with the demands at the bar.

Debbie Smith.. She was a GREAT partner assisting with setting up the tables and decorations .

I suppose I must mention the TALL guy Wayne Sewing for hanging all the ceiling décor.

The lucky winners of the POTATO PEELING contest were

1st ..Gary Knight 2nd ..Holly Tassin 3rd ..Val Bowser

I hope they enjoy the gift baskets.....

Thanks to everyone who entered the contest...you made it such a fun event....

Bobby Tassin had dinner in the LUCKY chair and found the Lotto ticket. The ticket did not lead him to his POT-OF-GOLD but in his dreams that night he was the ADMIRAL of a great boat.

The feedback from those who attended was very much appreciated.

Mark your calendars for these future events being planned...

Sunday, May 11..Mothers Day Jazz Brunch. This event will be the work of Emerson and Carolyn Loga. I am sure MOM-MOSA'S will be available.

More details will follow soon.

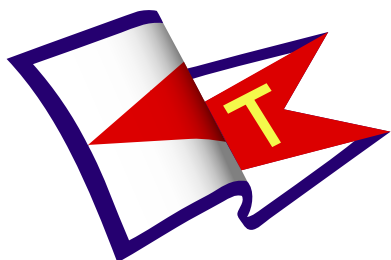

Friday, June 6..Tribute to Patsy Cline..The performance promises to be wonderful.

More info of this event will be made available as soon as details are confirmed.

Other events may turn up between now and then so stay tuned....

GOOD HEALTH and HAPPINESS to all TYC members...Jeanne Sewing
