Larry Whited

We're starting off the year with some good news and some bad news. First the bad news. Our Spyglass editor, Cheri Brady and her husband Derwood are relocating to Minnesota. I have it on good authority that their new unspecified residence is just a few hundred yards south of the Arctic Circle (see "Life Below Zero" on the National Geographic Channel). Rumor also has it that Cheri plans to set up a polar bear rehab center in their back yard. They will be sorely missed. To maintain the timely and professional stature of the Spyglass, Peggy Stone has stepped up to take over the editorship with Denise Rock assisting and as backup to Peggy. (Peggy now refers to me as "Mr. Arm Twister". At least she says "Mr.")

On the local sports front, the NFL admittedly is solely responsible for the Saints not being in the Super Bowl. Too bad there will not be, nor can there be severe enough appropriate consequences for the individuals involved in this fiasco. That won't keep us from having our own celebration. Saturday, February 2, TYC will be hosting a Saints Souper Bowl Party at 6:30. Bring your favorite soup, chili, gumbo or, if you're not into that, a side dish, salad or dessert. The 2 for 1 Saturday drink special will be in effect to help dull the senses (pain?). Just have a designated driver. I know there are some conflicting events that evening, but I hope we have a good turnout. Be sure to wear your favorite Saints regalia.

There will be two significant items on the next TYC Board Meeting agenda. First will be clarification and communication of the House Rules concerning Guest attendance at the Club. The House Rules are currently (and have been) posted just across from the bar. Second, House Committee guidelines (referenced in our bylaws) need to be edited and communicated to the Membership, especially concerning the annual free rental benefit for Members in good standing. Barry Statia will be leading these efforts. If you have any opinions on either of these matters or would like to participate in the development process, please contact Barry directly. The more involvement we have from our Members, the better the Club will be for all of us.

We had a terrific turnout at our January combination Steak/Fish and Birthday night. Kudos to Debbie Smith for manning the phone encouraging members to attend, and Tom Smith, Derwood Brady and Sandy Stone for manning the grills. And don't forget, Chef Suzy Sale and Dessert Specialist Jan Pecunia (with others participating) continue to dazzle us with their epicurean expertise on Thirsty Thursday. ANYONE who wishes to bring a side dish of any sort is encouraged to do so. NO permission required!

Progress is being made in other areas as well and progress will be communicated in subsequent communications.

Thanks to EVERYONE that is contributing to making Tammany Yacht Club a fun place to be.

See you at the Club.

House Committee

Barry Statia

We have been charged with updating and communicating the TYC House Rules to the membership. It has probably been a long time since most of us have reviewed them, and if we consistently apply them, there will be fewer misunderstandings.

Also, our house committee is responsible for developing rules for rentals (member/non-member), as well as roles and responsibilities and operating procedures for staff and TYC volunteers. This is an important task and input from multiple sources is needed. I'm there for directly soliciting volunteers for the specific project. If you're willing to join this effort, please contact me directly at 985 - 788 - 0780.

On the progress side, our manager, Laura Curtis is responsible for maintaining the club calendar - both in the club and on the website. Check back frequently to check out what new items have been added, and what changes have been made.

Race Committee

Bobby Tassin

Race Committee by Bobby Tassin

The 2018 TYC Club Series racing awards were presented at the January 2019 general membership meeting on Friday January 18th. Congratulations to the winners who received very sweet embroidered towels done by Mark Poole!

We had a very well received Sailing Protests seminar Jan 23rd with David Bolyard of Ullman West Wind speaking of tactics to avoid a protest and Karen Reisch reviewing how to prepare for and successfully submit a protest. A future presentation by Frank Bush on how to read and get actionable information from a traditional chart will be scheduled when we can work out the scheduling.

We may also have a seminar on how to become an NFL referee. Extremely poor vision is a must and a larcenous heart would be an asset.

2019 TYC Sailing Calendar – upcoming events

March 6 – WedNite Bill Watson Memorial Spring Skippers Meeting

March 13 – WedNite Spring Series I begins

March 22 – Skippers Meeting – Two Against The Lake

March 23 – Two Against The Lake Regatta

Here's to fair winds and following seas!

Membership news

If you did not attend the General Membership meeting, remember to stop in and get your GYA Club membership cards. They must be signed and can be laminated at the club.

Please pick up an "Invite Your Friends" card at the club.

We are all membership ambassadors for TYC. By hand delivering an invitation to a friend or colleague, we can grow our membership. Arrange to meet a friend and introduce them around our club.

Entertainment

Jean Almos

The entertainment committee of TYC has been asked to submit to the Board a list of possible functions for the coming year.

They would like your suggestions regarding events such as specialty parties, dances, etc. that would be of interest to members and their guests.

A ballot box is located at the club with forms to submit your ideas. You may remain anonymous.

Mark your calendar:

May 17 & 18—Bay St. Louis Pirate Fest. TYC members will cruise by car, RV, and boat to join the festivities. More info to follow.

Summer—Pontchartrain Landing cruise . RV and camper sights must be reserved in advance. Marina slips reservations are recommended. Condos, houseboat rentals, tiny house rentals are available. More info to follow.

Juniors

Sandy Stone

Hi everybody, as I mentioned at the General Membership meeting in January, our Sail Camp Optis are starting to get a little worn around the edges again. They have actually held up pretty well considering the wear and tear they get, but it's time for a little refurbishment.

I am requesting that our members either take a boat home to work on, and make it their own personal project, or else make a donation towards paying a professional to do it. There is a signup sheet at the bar.

Your Juniors Program, and especially our sailing kids, will greatly appreciate it!

Editor's Comments

Peggy Stone

This new year is bringing many changes. Our club will be saying goodbye to a couple that jumped feet first into the chaos from day 1. Derwood and Cheri Brady will be adding a new chapter to their lives. We wish them success and happiness, and a few warm days a year. They will be missed, but not forgotten. Cheri has been Spyglass editor extraordinaire. Denise Rock has graciously offered to assist me as co-editor. We hope to be able to follow in Cheri's footsteps, bringing to you an informative, fun issue every month.

Spyglass would love to hear from the club members. Anyone wishing to submit pictures or an article may forward them to:
