The Country & Western Party on September 14th was a lot of fun. I haven't seen so many boots, big buckles, and shirts/blouses with snaps and fringe since I went to square dances as a kid in Nebraska many decades ago. I'm looking forward to a repeat next year. Special thanks to ALL that contributed to the planning of this event and the attendees that made this event a success. There were many.

The Wednesday night Fall Sailing Series finishes the season with two final races in October. This is still a good time to learn what racing is all about. If that doesn't float your boat, come to the club around 8:00 and find out who made the fewest mistakes on the water (i.e. the winners) and who has the most excuses.

The Leen Polderman regatta saw a small but enthusiastic fleet. Weather conditions were perfect. The awards were Leen's favorite adult beverage – Jack Daniels. Very fitting. The results should be posted on the website.

The Single-Handed Round the Lake Race is scheduled for October 5th. Check the website for more details and the registration form. Speaking of the web site, Sandy Stone is doing a terrific job in keeping the TYC website (tammanyachtclub.org) fresh and current. More functionality is in the works. Also, make sure you frequently check the TYC calendar for the latest information on happenings at the club.

Thirsty Thursday/Good Eats and Birthday/Steak night continue to be very popular. Make your Friday night reservations by 8:00pm Thursday evening so we can special order your request. Any reservation requests after the deadline can only be accepted if there are last minute cancellations. As noted, we order and prepare ONLY what our reservations indicate. Thanks for your understanding in this manner.

There is a special treat for the Club on October 3rd. Margarita Warren will entertain us with her outstanding voice. Don't miss it. Thanks to Wayne and Jeanne Sewing for sponsoring her performance.

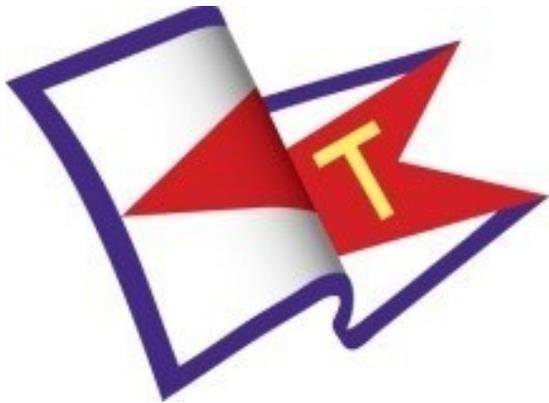

Thanks to EVERYONE that is currently contributing to make Tammany Yacht Club a fun place to be.

See you at the Club.

Around the House

Check out the refurbished life rings that are hanging on the balcony! Much thanks to Carol and Larry Whited .

Our own Tiffany Lane recently celebrated her birthday when the 3rd Wednesday night race was called off. I am sure she would have preferred sailing but the disappointed sailors enjoyed her cake, compliments of husband, Reggie Lane.

September did not want to let the summer go and October is thus far following suit. The "Fall" series is in high gear with 2 races left on 10/2 and 10/9. Thanks again to Kevin Jordan and Bodega in Bay St Louis for sponsoring the series. Thank you Mike Parks on Remedy along with Dodie Jones for being on the water race committee. Other volunteers include Bill Jobst on Wind-some and Wayne Sewing and Commodore Larry Whited and the racers who all are helping to set marks as needed. New marks to replace "T" and "C" have been set and the new "Y" mark is awaiting a combination of weather, boat and crew to get it set. Big thanks go to all who have/are donating funds, time and resources to that effort: Mark Palermo, Kevin Jordan, Bobby Tassin, Wayne Jablonowski, Kyle Bowser, Sandy Stone, Wayne Sewing and Frank Bush. Sincere apologies if I overlooked anyone. Kenny Lanata and Tom Smith others also agreed to donate but those funds may go to another new mark or perhaps getting a channel marker piling replacing the outer red mark.

Word is confirmed that Mark Poole is still hard at engine work on The Second Line.

We again want to thank Kevin Jordan and Bodega BSL for sponsoring the WedNite Fall Series!

We had the Leen Polderman Regatta, on September 22nd, part of the Club Champion Series and enjoyed three races in good sailing conditions. Next up on Saturday 10/5 is Single Handed Race. Then the LPRC the last full weekend of October. Please plan on signing up as soon as you can for that event.

Our final regatta of the Club Champion Series is the Commodore's Cup Regatta. It is slated for Nov 9th but that date may change.

Juniors

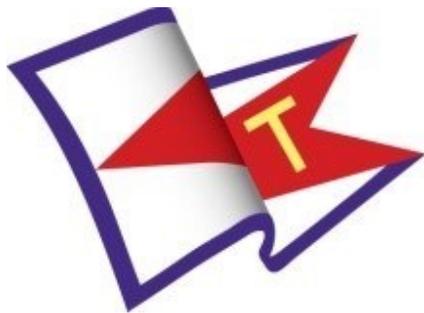

Sandy Stone

School days have returned for our juniors. Best wishes for a great year to our high school junior members, and college members.

Aaron Parks, Brady Parks and Gabrielle Lormand sailed the Viper in the Leen Polderman Regatta. Andrew Myers sailed on Seduisant. It was great to see them out on the water.

For anyone keeping a boat in the Juniors boatyard—please be sure to secure your boat. There have been issues in the past. The juniors boat yard is for member only use.

" Be Not Afraid " Don't fall apart over membership !!!!

If WE just keep informing people in a very Positive manner, They'll join.

This is a group effort.

God bless America!

Thank you to all who contribute articles and pictures. The year is winding down but the events continue.

October has a general membership meeting. On Thirsty Thursday, October 3, entertainment will be by Marguerite Warren. Enjoy Good Eats and live music! November will bring a chili cook off. These are great times to connect with your fellow members and support the club.

The club is always a fun gathering spot during football season. Come cheer on the home team (or your favorite) on the big screen. Bring a snack and grab a beer from the bar! The October dates are in this Spyglass.

Check out the fun costumes for the Country Western Dance. Thanks to everyone who took pictures, as I was not able to attend.

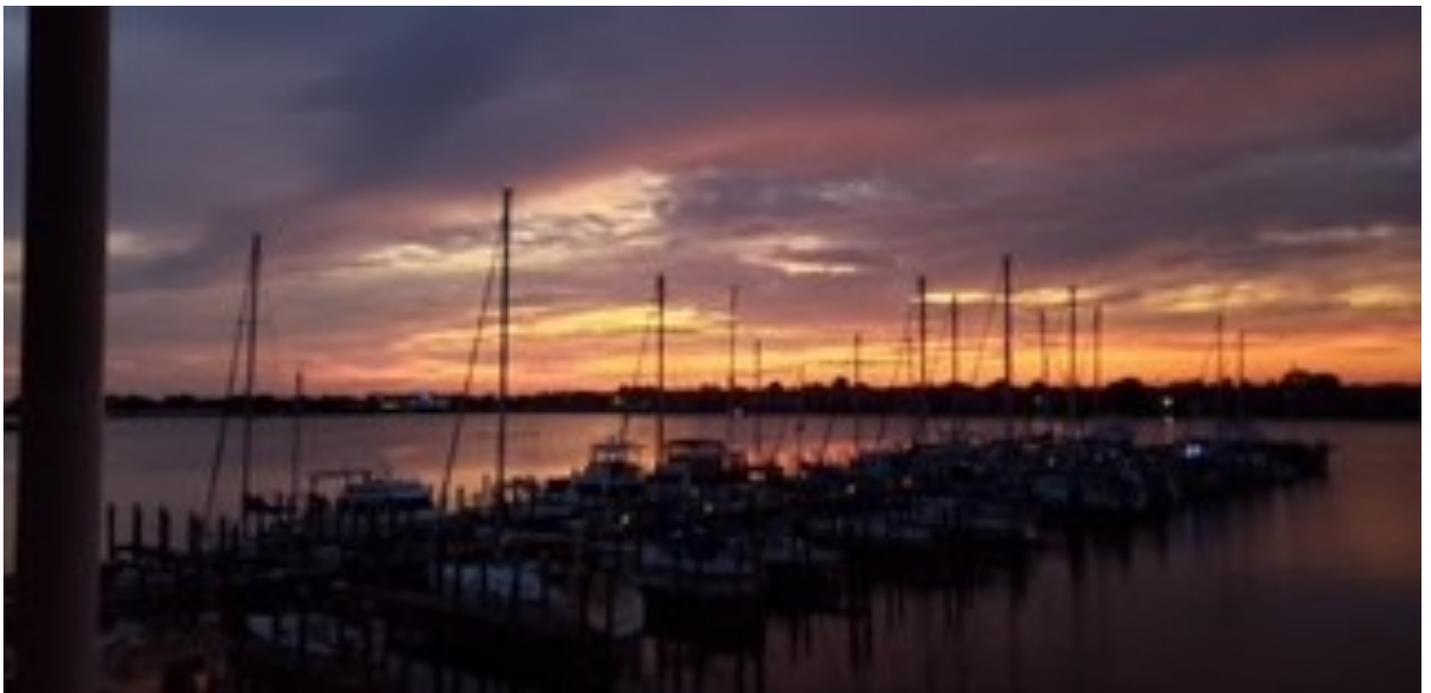

Sunsets are spectacular this time of year. If you can't be at the club for sunset, enjoy the pictures!

Please read the write up about our awesome telephone caller, This busy lady gives it her all every month to increase participation at club events. If you do not wish for her to call you, simply text her to remove you from her list. Anyone not responding will be scratched from the list this month.

Keep those pictures coming!!

It's 5 o'clock somewhere!
